

TCOTLG President Jasmine Styles Selected for Mississippi Nonprofit Civic Engagement Collective

Leland, MS – TCOTLG Community Outreach & Services is proud to announce that its President, Jasmine S. Styles has been selected to participate in the prestigious 2025 Nonprofit

Civic Engagement Collective, hosted by the . This program is designed to empower nonprofit leaders to deepen their civic engagement, enhance their organizations' missions, and foster impactful change across the state.

The Nonprofit Civic Engagement Collective equips participants with the tools, strategies, and partnerships necessary to address pressing community challenges. Jasmine's participation is a testament to her commitment to driving meaningful initiatives for underserved communities across Washington, Bolivar, and Sunflower counties. Through TCOTLG's diverse programs—including youth development, workforce readiness, and food security efforts—Jasmine has consistently demonstrated her dedication to addressing local disparities and promoting sustainable growth.

"I am honored to be part of this transformative cohort," said Styles. "The skills and connections I will gain through this program will not only enhance TCOTLG's impact but also help strengthen the civic fabric of the communities we serve."

As part of the cohort, Jasmine will collaborate with nonprofit leaders across Mississippi, exchanging ideas and exploring innovative solutions to address systemic issues. Her focus will center on expanding TCOTLG's outreach efforts and building stronger, more resilient partnerships to better serve the region.

About TCOTLG Community Outreach & Services

TCOTLG Community Outreach & Services is a nonprofit organization committed to eradicating barriers to food security, education, and workforce development. Rooted in faith and community, TCOTLG empowers individuals and families across the Mississippi Delta to achieve self-sufficiency and thrive in every aspect of their lives.

For more information about TCOTLG Community Outreach & Services and its programs, visit <https://www.tcotlgoutreach.org/nonprofit>.